Funeral Services Held Saturday for Roosevelt Rancher

---

Clyde B. Sharp Laid to Rest in
Lancaster Cemetery

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Baptist Church in Lancaster for Clyde B. Sharp, whose tragic death resulted from a fall from scaffolding on new hay barn at his ranch between Lancaster and Roosevelt last Thursday afternoon. Rev. Sam J. Irwin and Rev. Early officiated at the services, and interment was in the Lancaster cemetery. Mumaw's Funeral Home had charge of the services. Mr. Sharp was 57 years of age at the time of his death, and was one of the prominent alfalfa ranchers of the Roosevelt district.

He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Gladys Webb; one grandson and two granddaughters; one brother, George Sharp, of Selma; one niece, Mrs. Harry Tarzian of Sacramento; one nephew, Malcolm Sharp of Oakland, all of whom were present for the funeral.

A large number of former Valley residents and friends of Mr. Sharp returned to attend the services, including the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Copple, Mr. and Mrs. Cort Hite, Mr. and Mrs. James Bateman, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Winslow, and Mrs. Winifred Roberts, all of Los Angeles; Joe Jacobs and daughter Rachel of Orange; Dean Kirk of Huntington Park; Mr. and Mrs. Bergner of Maywood; Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Gilstrap and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hill of Kingsbury; W. E. Perrin of Famosa; Mrs. Vernal Barter of Bakersfield; H. L. Cottle and Mrs. Roy Page of Newport Beach; and Mrs. Gates and daughters of Hueneme. Mrs. Gates and daughters furnished the singing for the services.
