

Inocente Portillo Is Taken By Death

After an illness that has lasted for a year, Inocente Portillo died last Thursday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. Yrigollen, at the age of sixty-two years.

~~Mr. Portillo had lived here for~~ the last five years, making his home with his daughter.

A week before death his illness, which was an asthmatic affliction, became so acute that he lost his voice.

The funeral was held last Sunday at the Church of the Sacred Heart, in Lancaster.

Surviving are two married daughters, Mrs. P. Yrigollen and Mrs. Charley Rivera, a single daughter, Miss Jennie Portillo, age 21, and three sons, Martin 17, Benny 21 and Jimmy 8.
