

ACTIVE LIFE ENDS.

Funeral Services Today for Benjamin F. Carter of Lancaster.

Funeral services for Benjamin F. Carter, prominent lumber and real estate man of Lancaster and former Representative and State Senator of Wisconsin, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the chapel of the Hollywood Cemetery. Rev. G. Amos of the Ramona Acres Presbyterian Church will officiate. The body will be shipped to Oshkosh, Wis.

Mr. Carter was 91 years of age. He was born in Concord, New Hampshire, and when a young man moved to Wisconsin. In Oshkosh he soon distinguished himself by building up the largest brick and lime business in that city, and later represented his district both in the Assembly and Senate of that State.

Mr. Carter came to California in 1900. For the last eight years he was engaged in the oil, land and lumber business at Lancaster.

Two months ago he became seriously ill and was taken to the Glendale Sanatorium, where he passed away Thursday. He leaves four sons and three daughters; one daughter, Miss Sarah Carter, residing at No. 6824 Hollywood boulevard.
